

We FAMILY

All families are different and yet in many ways the same!
Use the space below to draw your very own family portrait.

If you would like to, write a few words about your family below...

No matter where we live, or our colour, creed, or name.
In each and every family, the love is all the same.

All families are different and yet in many ways the same. We Are Family celebrates the differences and similarities between families as they eat, sleep, work and play together.
Turn the pages to discover the diverse and wonderful families we all come from.
