

Catalogue 2024

Welcome to the Little Tiger catalogue 2024

Little Tiger is proud to present a glorious collection of new titles for 2024.

We are delighted to welcome back some of our picture-book superstars. Everyone's favourite book monster is back in Nibbles: The Very Hungry Book Monster (p.23); Bob McGrew is joined by a slew of new characters in Poo in the Zoo: The Super Pooper Road Race (p.17) and more scatological hi-jinks ensue with the return of Bush Baby in I Really, Really Need a Poo (p.9). Louie Stowell introduces Bill the Bard to Little Tiger with two titles out in April and September that offer a bear-y funny take on Shakespeare (p.12); and more literary-related adventures can be found in Gina Kaminski's latest quest as she returns to fairy-tale land to save the Giant (p.20). We are also thrilled to welcome future stars to the list: debut author Nima Patel has created The Best You (p.6), encouraging us to ask children who – rather than what – they want to be when they grow up; Emma Chinnery introduces us to Fluffy and Andy in the beautiful My Friend Andy (p.11); and finally, Julia Moscardó celebrates new beginnings and blended families in Changing Tides (p.19).

There's plenty of fun to be had in our selection for babies and toddlers, from innovative colours book Cows Are Pink! (p.41) to helping with household chores in the first of Nicola Kent's new series, Bear's Wash Day (p.43). This selection of fresh voices and perspectives sits alongside new additions to classic, fan-favourite series, such as My First Touch and Feel Sound Book: Noisy Construction (p.38), Night Night, My Little Cuddle Bug (p.48) and Sophie Beer's You're Fabulous As You Are (p.45).

Revisit Castle Grotteskew and the darkly funny world of Stitch Head as our eponymous hero is in graphic-novel form for the first time (p.91). For younger graphic-novel fans, live and let spy with Agent Harrier in the explosively funny new series by Ben Sanders (p.90) or follow the adventures of Hoof the Unicorn and his fellow football players in Bad United (p.90) – can this misfit football team show everyone what they've got . . .

'Let me tell you a story . . . ' entice Guy Bass and David Roberts in a new collection of terrifying tales, The Worst Thing That Could Possibly Happen (p.92). Further fiction highlights include the robo-tastic adventures of Bertha and Blink (p.79), a race against the clock in The Time Travellers (p.93) and a return from the wild in When the Wild Calls (p.94).

For young-adult readers, we have a celebration of finding your place in the LGBTQ+ community. Alongside a fifth-anniversary edition of the ground-breaking anthology Proud (p.100), there is a sprinkling of romance in Something to be Proud Of (p.100) and the tropey, tongue-in-cheek How to Survive a Teen Horror Movie (p.101).

As ever, our mission is to champion high-quality books to engage and inspire young readers everywhere.

Love is in the Little Things

Stella J Jones & Jane Massey

Love is in the little things.
A kiss, a smile, a cup of tea.
Just me and you sitting quietly.
A song, a hug, a helping hand
that lifts us up so we can stand.

A celebration of all the little ways we show our love.

Outside

Bee Chuck

Outside is a place that nobody cares much about. It's somewhere to go for a walk in the park or a trip to the duck pond. Inside is much more important. Until suddenly, no one is allowed to go outside and everything changes . . .

An inspiring story about rebuilding our relationship with the natural world.

Now We're Together

Nicola Edwards
& Jenny Bloomfield

This world of ours buzzes and fizzes with light.
Phone glare. Screen glare. It's so noisy and bright.
We're scrolling, eyes flicking . . . but what do we see?
Am I seeing you? Are you seeing me?

This life-affirming picture book explores the adventures we can have when we put down our phones.

A Midsummer Night's Drama
Louie Stowell & Isobel Lundie

NEW

Bill the Bear lives with his friends in the woods and writes brilliant plays for The Glade Theatre. His latest play is a huge success, but it's only after the final curtain that the problems begin . . .

Parents everywhere will recognise the drama of getting an over-excited little bear off to dreamland.

With endmatter introducing children to the world of Shakespeare.

The Tantrum
Louie Stowell & Isobel Lundie

NEW

Bill Bear and his friends are staging a new play in their woodland theatre, The Glade, but when Bill falls off the stage in the middle of his big speech he throws a full-blown tantrum! Parents everywhere will identify with his friends as they try to calm Bill down and persuade him that the show must go on.

Imperfectly Perfect

Perry Emerson & Hoang Giang

What is imperfectly perfect?

It's a flower growing from a cracked pavement.

It's the memory of a happy time, etched in a wrinkled smile.

It's taking something broken, mending it with love and making something new.

Something unique. Beautiful.

And imperfectly perfect.

A story that cherishes beauty in imperfection.

Santarella

Suzy Senior & Lucy Semple

It's a chilly, frosty Christmas Eve and Santa's hurt his back.

He cannot fly the reindeer – or even lift his sack!

But who's the hero in his sleigh? My stars! It's Cinderella!

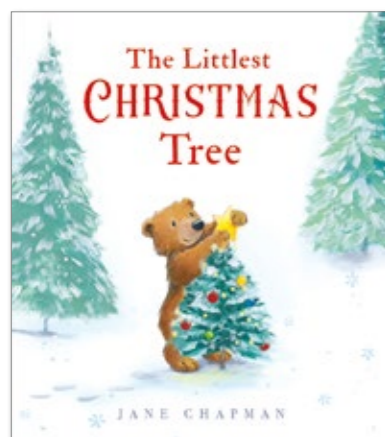

Bringing gifts and Christmas cheer! HOORAY FOR . . . SANTARELLA!

A funny, fractured fairy tale about choosing your own happy-ever-after.

The Littlest Christmas Tree

Jane Chapman

Christmas is here and Cubby has found the perfect tree.

It's little and fluffy, just like her!

But when Christmas is over does the magic end?

No! The littlest tree grows happily in the garden until it's time for the Christmas magic

to start all over again.

A festive tale for bear cubs (big and small!) who love Christmas.

Elves on Strike

Nicola Edwards & Pauline Gregory

It's Christmas Eve but all is not well in Santa's workshop . . .

The toy-building elves are exhausted, the gift-wrappers are tangled in tape and the reindeer-wranglers are ready to strike! Will Christmas be cancelled or can one elf's quick thinking and festive spirit save the day?

How It Works: Shark

Molly Littleboy & David Semple

Sharks are incredible creatures and powerful predators! Dive in to find out all about their super senses, incredible speed and questionable eating habits!

With peep-through pages and BITE-sized facts, this book is perfect for shark-mad toddlers.

What's on the Inside?

An organ is a part of the body with its own important job to do. Sharks have many similar organs to humans!

Did You Know?

Some species of shark have a special organ that lets them glow in the dark.

Greedy sharks often gobble up things they can't digest: cans, shoes and even number plates. Luckily, many types of shark can turn their stomach inside out to give it a rinse!

How It Works: Fire Engine

Molly Littleboy & David Semple

Fire engines are incredible emergency vehicles. But how do they work? This chunky board book has been especially designed for little hands, with interactive, peep-through pages to grasp and explore.

Curious readers will love learning about the amazing things that fire engines and firefighters can do: from putting out flames to rescuing cats. Nee, naw – fire engine to the rescue!

Cows Are PINK!

Becky Davies & Gareth Lucas

Cows are pink, aren't they? And horses are... yellow? That can't be right!

Turn the peep-through pages to transform these funny coloured farm animals back to how they should look. Little ones will HOOT with laughter at the mixed-up pairings - from pink cows and yellow horses to red sheep. With a dry, humorous text and a surprise flap on the final page!

Yellow is SO not my colour.

WITH LAYERED POP-UPS

So, should you be lucky and spot Santa's flight,
Give him a wave as he speeds through the night.
And, faint on the breeze, you may hear him call:
"A very merry Christmas to one and to all!"

Poetry for Everyone

Embracing a variety of perspectives and voices, these themed poetry anthologies are bursting with life as they celebrate the wide-reaching topics of mindfulness, nature, emotions and empowerment. There is something to intrigue and delight readers of every age.

You Only Spy Twice

Agent Harrier must discover the identity of a top-secret file-stealing traitor in the BARK intelligence agency. No use in chasing your own tail, Harrier – it's going to take wits to catch this dastardly double agent.

But Harrier's acting strangely (well, more strangely than usual), and something is happening to the book itself. Whole pages are repeating! What's going on? Surely the culprit can't be – gulp – ANOTHER HARRIER?!

Agent Harrier

Ben Sanders

An explosively metafictional graphic novel series from the award-winning Ben Sanders. Join Agent Harrier as he sniffs out explosive plot twists, defeats power-hungry narrators, and uses his VERY best gadgets to save the world (or at least, the books he lives in) from being destroyed. Paws at the ready – it's time to live and let spy . . .

When the Wild Calls

Nicola Penfold

Having escaped their city, Juniper Greene and her brother Bear have settled in Ennerdale with their dad and his family. Every day the wild introduces them to a new wonder, but Juniper can't stop worrying about her grandmother and best friend left behind. When she hears news that disease has entered the city, she's determined to bring her loved ones to safety.

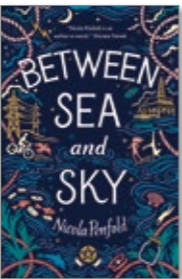

Trapped in a city riddled with disease and run by a ruthless leader, Etienne longs for the wild. With the guards becoming more aggressive to counteract the growing rebellion, Etienne's prepared to fight for his freedom. But will he be able to protect himself and keep those around him safe until Juniper returns from the wild?

Something to be Proud Of

Anna Zoe Quirke

Imogen Quinn is a chaotic bisexual with dreams of becoming a stand-up comedian and crushing stereotypes about autistic people. When she decides to put on a pride festival that's accessible for everyone, she enlists the help of the openly gay captain of the football team, Ollie Armstrong.

Dealing with the fallout from his parents' divorce, Ollie is initially hesitant. But it doesn't take long for him to be swept up by Imogen's passion, and he's not the only one. Joined by the (distractingly beautiful) head girl, musicians, an artist and a star baker – a dream team soon assembles to help plan pride and tackle injustices in their school and beyond. It's time to make some noise.

Only This Beautiful Moment

Abdi Nazemian

Following three generations of Iranian men: Moud in 2019 visiting his ailing grandfather in Iran, his father Saeed forced to flee to America in 1979, and his grandfather Bobby, a child actor in 1930s Hollywood. Only This Beautiful Moment explores the intersectionality of queerness and the immigrant experience, it's an ode to the fragile bonds of family, the hidden secrets of history and all the beautiful moments that make us who we are today.
