What Lunar Zodiac animal are you?

The books in the Guardians of the New Moon series are based on ancient East Asian legend about a race that determined the animals on the lunar zodiac. The lunar zodiac is a twelve-year cycle with years dedicated to the first twelve animals who finished the race.

What is your lunar zodiac sign? Use this chart to find out!

Note: The zodiac year doesn't match up exactly to the Gregorian calendar (January to December), so make sure to look up specific dates!

Mapping magical lands

Explore the mythical locations from the Guardians of the New Moon series and create your own map of magical lands and populate them with magical creatures and powerful gods.

Corridor of Moving Sands

A common feature in Chinese legends is a barrier of flowing sands. Sometimes the corridor appears in the sky as a floating pathway.

Kunlun Mountain

In Chinese legends, Kunlun Mountain is a vast mountain of mysterious valleys and peaks that are home to many gods and magical creatures.

Immortal Peach Garden

A garden of magical peaches protected by the Queen Mother of the West. One bite of these peaches will allow you to live for thousands of years!

Weak River

The Weak River is one of many magical rivers in ancient Chinese legends. Its waters are so weak that nothing floats in it, not even a feather.
